

VOLUNTEERING

Volunteering for a site visit to Ethiopia — Friends of the Hudad

Things you should know

Volunteering is a rewarding and fun experience. If you wish to volunteer for FoTH there are a few things that you need to be aware of so you have an enjoyable experience and the work you do makes a difference to the lives of children and their families in the Hudad.

What you can expect from FoTH

- To have your application considered by the FoTH Board
- To be treated equally with other volunteers
- To have any complaints listened to and dealt with
- To be provided with a clear understanding on work you will undertake

What FoTH expects from volunteers

- To treat people with respect and dignity
- To adhere to any cultural or religious protocols
- To abide by FoTH policies and values for volunteers
- To adhere to decisions made by the FoTH Board
- To follow advice and directions of FoTH supervisors on site

“My experience was exhilarating on multiple levels. The environment was spectacular, the local people welcoming & genuinely friendly. The team working on the school were very inclusive and my efforts were always appreciated”
